Hi Michael,
February 9th or 10th is fine with me. I have child care responsibilities in the afternoon so mornings are the only times that really work for me. I was the custodial chemist and Annie was the confirmatory chemist.

That's fine with me.

I think I have another case schedule with Kristy that week.

Thanks.

Hi,
I'm the ADA presently assigned to the above case, scheduled for trial on February 9th.
I was wondering whether one or both of you are available for the scheduled date. Perhaps you can let me know how each of you was involved in examining the substance [REDACTED] so that we can plan who is absolutely necessary for trial.
If you have thoughts or questions please let me know.
